ETIQUETTE AGREEMENT

☆ Please read carefully ☆

Welcome to our eighth annual production of children's musical theater! We are committed to providing a positive, meaningful experience for children and families, and an enjoyable performance for the community. This agreement will help insure that rehearsals run smoothly and our production is the very best it can be.

PARENTS/GUARDIANS AND PARTICIPANTS: Please read, sign and return both the registration form and the back page of this to register for the musical. By signing, you and your child are agreeing to observe all the standards of this agreement during your involvement in the musical. Cast spots are limited. By registering, you are committing to be here!

SCHEDULE: (subject to change) Some scenes or musical numbers may require additional call times. You will be notified in advance if this involves you. Every effort is made to stick to our schedule. A mid-morning snack and lunch are provided for the cast on rehearsal days.

PARENT/GUARDIAN MEETING: Monday, July 9, 9:00 to 9:15 AM

REHEARSALS:

Monday – Friday, July 9 – 13, 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM

*A mid-morning snack & healthy lunch are provided each day. Please advise us of any special dietary needs.
Auditions & casting take place first thing on Monday morning.*

DRESS REHEARSAL: Friday, July 13, time TBA

PERFORMANCE CALL TIMES: (approximate – may vary by your role)
Friday & Saturday, July 13 & 14, 5:30PM to Final Curtain

PARTICIPANTS AND THEIR PARENTS/GUARDIANS AGREE TO:

BEFORE REHEARSAL WEEK BEGINS

- ★ Sing with your CD and read your script aloud and with expression – a lot! If the CD and script are different, follow the script. Roles are cast based on auditions at the first rehearsal. So, come ready to do your very best!

ATTENDANCE

- ★ Be here. Be on time. If an emergency arises and you can't be at rehearsal, please contact us immediately!
- ★ Attend all meetings, rehearsals and performances. Because the production is only one week long, missing rehearsal time will impact your role, the rest of the cast, and possibly whether you will be able to participate.

REHEARSAL PREPARATION

- ★ Come prepared for your part each day. Get a full night's rest and eat a good breakfast each day.
- ★ Memorize all your lines, and all the songs and dances. We will be working off-script by Wednesday! Parents/Guardians must be willing to help with this important task.
- ★ Wear appropriate clothing (shorts under skirts, please) and flat-heeled, closed-toed shoes. NO FLIP-FLOPS!
- ★ Leave electronics, toys or other such personal items at home. Cell phones must be turned off or silenced and put away during rehearsal. Messages may be checked at break times.

KEEP THIS SHEET FOR YOUR REFERENCE

BEHAVIOR EXPECTED

- ★ Be respectful towards leaders, parents (yours and others'), and each other at all times. Treat facilities, equipment, and grounds with respect. Clean up after yourself.
- ★ Be attentive, cooperative and open to direction.
- ★ Encourage and support the performances of others.
- ★ Be where you are supposed to be; stay in designated areas. A responsible adult needs to know where you are at all times. Do not leave the building without asking one of the staff.
- ★ No food or drinks in the auditorium, except a capped water bottle.

DROP-OFF AND PICK-UP OF CHILDREN

- ★ When dropping off or picking up children, parents or responsible adults are asked to come inside the building. This protects your child and allows us to communicate with you on important issues.

COMMUNICATION

- ★ We will be using "Remind" to communicate with families. Instructions to connect with 2018 Musical are found on the next page. Please provide your cell phone number so we can make sure you are included in the loop!
- ★ Don't have a cell phone? Let us know on the signature page so we can send home traditional paper notifications.

SCRIPTS AND CDS

- ★ Bring your script and a pencil with you to rehearsal. Take it home each afternoon so you can study!
- ★ YOUR SCRIPT AND CD MAY NOT BE COPIED AND MUST BE RETURNED BY THE DAY OF DRESS REHEARSAL.

MAKE-UP & COSTUMES

- ★ Wear all costume pieces and make-up as assigned. Please advise us of any allergies or sensitivities.
- ★ Provide requested costume pieces and make-up (usually items such as shoes, pants, foundation make-up, and mascara) If this presents difficulty, please let us know. We do not want it to be a burden for any of our cast.
- ★ Take care of costumes issued and return all pieces to the costuming room at the end of each performance. Items you bring from home will remain with costuming until after the final performance.

SPECIAL NEEDS OR CONCERNS

- ★ Please notify us of any special needs and concerns you have, particularly in regard to medication and allergies, and also of learning or behavioral issues which may affect rehearsal or performance. Space is provided for this on your registration form. If you have other concerns, please check with us.

PERFORMANCE SEATING ETIQUETTE

- ★ Please remember that EVERYONE attending deserves to have a good seat and enjoy the show. If you had a seat in front the first night, sit farther back and let another family have that experience the second night.
- ★ The auditorium opens at 6:00PM for performances, and you may save seats at this time with these courtesies:
 - Save only the number of seats you need for those in your party you are certain will attend.
 - A responsible adult needs to remain with your saved seats at all times.
 - Be gracious to those around you, even if it is not returned.
- ★ By taking responsibility in these small ways, we can help to be sure everyone enjoys the evening.
